Important Election Information

April 25: Last Day to Register to Vote for the May 24th Primary Run-off Election

Tax Assessor-Collector Mike Sullivan reminds residents that April 25, 2016 is the last day to register to vote in the May 24, 2016 Primary Run-off Election.

“We have some very important races that will be on the May 24th Primary Run-Off Election ballot,” said Sullivan. “I want every citizen to check their voter registration status to be sure they are registered to vote. The last day to register to vote to be eligible for the Primary Run-off election is April 25, 2016.

State law requires citizens to be registered to vote at least 30 days prior to the election date. Citizens can visit the Tax Assessor-Collector’s (TAC) Office website at www.hctax.net to check their voter registration status and learn how to register to vote.

Qualifications to Register to Vote:

- You are a United States citizen and a resident of Harris County; and,
- You are at least 17 years and 10 months old to register (to vote, you must be 18); and,
- You are not finally convicted of a felony, or, if convicted, you must have been fully discharged of the sentence, including any term of incarceration, parole, supervision, or completed a period of probation ordered by any court; or been pardoned or otherwise released from the resulting disability to vote.
- You have not been declared by a court exercising probate jurisdiction to be either totally or partially mentally incapacitated without the right to vote.

Voter Registration applications can be submitted to any TAC branch office location before 4:30 p.m. on Monday, April 25, 2016 or mailed with a U.S. Postal Service postmark date of no later than April 25, 2016. For more information, please call 713-274-8200 or email voters@hctx.net.

Harris County Tax Assessor-Collector Mike Sullivan also serves as the Harris County Voter Registrar, who conducts voter registration activities and maintains a certified list of registered voters. Learn more about voter registration and the requirements by visiting www.hctax.net.
